

WALKER
BASIN PROJECT

UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA, RENO
DESERT RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Save the Date

Desert Terminus Lakes Symposium

November 9 - 10, 2016

University of Nevada, Reno

Joe Crowley Student Union ■ Reno, Nevada, USA

photograph by BLM Nevada

Symposium Overview

All are invited to attend a conference on terminus lakes research in Reno, Nevada in November 2016. The Desert Terminus Lakes Symposium is sponsored by the Nevada System of Higher Education, University of Nevada, Reno, Desert Research Institute and Walker Basin Project. It will feature talks on environment, agricultural and economic topics central to the restoration of Walker Lake and the surrounding basin.

Schedule of Events

Wednesday, November 9

Registration and welcome

Keynote speaker (Senator Harry Reid invited)

Invited presentations on Desert Terminal Lakes Programs

Invited presentations of research conducted by the Walker Basin Research Project

Poster session and reception

Thursday, November 10

Invited presentations of research conducted by the Walker Basin Research Project

Closing remarks

Solicitation of Poster Abstracts

Researchers are invited to present a poster on relevant research or restoration activities. Deadline for submission is August 31, 2016. The abstract form can be found online at <http://greatbasinresearch.com/walker/symposium/call-for-posters/>

For updated symposium information:

<http://greatbasinresearch.com/walker/symposium/>

Fill out the form at the link below to receive conference emails:

<https://unrunae.wufoo.com/forms/desert-terminus-lakes-symposium/>

Sponsored by:

THIS PROJECT WAS FUNDED BY A GRANT UNDER PUBLIC LAW 109-103, SECTION 208(A), THROUGH THE U.S. BUREAU OF RECLAMATION (COOPERATIVE AGREEMENT 06FC204044) AND THROUGH THE NATIONAL FISH AND WILDLIFE FOUNDATION.